

Dear friends,

The degree of success and the sense of accomplishment is often measured in how well an event is planned and how well it turns out. Giving first of all, glory and praise to God for the rain-free and sunshine filled day last Sunday (albeit a bit on the hot side), we had a near perfect day for our Annual Church and Community Fair. And while blessed by God – God left the hard work, the planning and commitment, sacrifice of so many to really make it happen! In other words, God provided the blessings – it was up to us to use them! And use them, we did!

Behind the scenes were months of meetings and planning by the committee that develops the vision, delegating responsibilities and calling on the talents and strengths of parishioners because it takes a cooperative effort of every parishioner working with the Fair Committee for our fair to be a success.

I want to express my deepest appreciation to all who helped make this year’s fair all that it turned out to be: the planning committee, those preparing food, selling tickets, inviting vendors, working games, food and beverage booths, decorating, set up and taking down, those providing entertainment, volunteers, raffle ticket captains, parishioners who were responsible for and did their part in selling or purchasing their raffle ticket(s) and those who came out and enjoyed the day, supporting the Church fair in any way.

St. Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 12:4-6;11 “There are many gifts but one Spirit and many ministries but the same Lord; there are different works but the same God who accomplishes all of them in everyone. It is one and the same Spirit who produces all these gifts, distributing them to each as the Spirit wills.” God has indeed blessed us all with different gifts to accomplish God’s will at St. Paul and throughout the greater community. As we continue to use the gifts of God as the Spirit blesses us, I am sure even greater things will be done by the faith community of St. Paul for the greater honor and glory of God!

To each of you who have done so much and done it well – my deepest and most sincere thanks for helping to make this year’s Church and Community Fair the success it was!

In the name of the Divine Word, I am

Fr. Rick Andrus SJD

A Vocation View: The rich young man desires to live a virtuous life. It requires letting go of what gets in the way of following Jesus wholeheartedly. You can let go, too!

Come out and enjoy a night of Halloween games, movies, food, and treats at St. Paul's "Hallelujah Night" in St. Paul's Center on Wednesday, October 31st from 6 until 8 pm. Wear your best costume for the Costume Contest! This event is open to everyone, youth and adults. Don't miss out on the fun! Entry to the event is a canned good for donation. We are asking parishioners to donate candy for the event. If you have an questions, please contact Justin Kennedy at 225-754-2609.

ATTENTION WOMEN OF ST. PAUL: Please join the members of St. Paul's Women's Club for a Women's Fellowship Luncheon on Saturday, October 27th at 11 AM. Evangelist Barbara Green is our guest speaker. All women of faith are welcome. Please invite your female family members and neighbors. A delicious meal will be served. Tickets are $15 and can be purchased from any Women's Club member or call the parish office at 383-2537.

URGENT: If you are at least eighteen and have not registered to vote, you can register online by October 19th to qualify to vote in the November 6 election.

FOOD & BLANKET DRIVE: Please help St. Paul's Junior Daughters make a difference in our community by donating non-perishable food items for the needy and blankets for the homeless. Your donations are greatly needed and appreciated.

OPEN HOUSE at CRISTO REY High School - This is a Catholic school open to students of all faiths. Open House will be held November 8, 2018 from 4 - 6 PM at 4000 St. Gerard Ave., Baton Rouge, LA 70805. They have small class sizes and support services, a co-educational school reflecting the racial and ethnic diversity of the Baton Rouge area, and four years of professional work experience while earning college-preparatory course credits. For additional information contact Erica Walker at ewalker@cristoreybr.org or (225) 615-7479.

Please be sure to join members of St. Paul and Together Baton Rouge this Tuesday evening at 6 PM for our very formative and informative Civic Academy about Police Reform in the City of Baton Rouge. This is an issue that effects our community greatly – and one that we would all benefit learning more about to be an effective part of the change for the better!
